

WATERTOWN, MA (October 5, 2011) -St. John the Baptist School, Peabody, MA, to be featured on the CatholicTV(r) Network.

On October 10, 2011, St. John the Baptist School from Peabody, MA, will be featured on the CatholicTV Network's television game show, WOW: The CatholicTV Challenge.

WOW: The CatholicTV Challenge features three rounds of three third graders answering host Father Reed's questions about the "WUDABOUT", phrases that have significance in Catholic life. The winner of each round advances to the final challenge to compete for the grand prize.

The Wudabout is revealed by "Nosey", the know-it-all, animated, 3-D dog. This season, the Wudabouts have questions drawn from "YouCat", short for "Youth Catechism", developed by European bishops and distributed at World Youth Day in Madrid. St. John the Baptist School answers Wudabout questions on the Catholic Jumble.

St. John the Baptist School offers quality Christian education from pre-school to grade eight. The St. John's School community creates a Christian atmosphere that is safe, supportive, caring and loving. They prepare and challenge each other to be lifelong learners, academically, socially and spiritually.
